NEW PASTOR FOR ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH.

By order of the Bishop of this diocese, Rev. Father James Marsollier, who has been pastor of St. John's for the past fourteen months, was transferred to the pastorate of the LaCoste parish and left Friday for that place.

Rev. Father Planchett was transferred from Devine to this place and assumed his duties here Friday.

During Father Marsollier's stay here he made many friends who regretted to see him leave and who wish him success in his new field.

Father Planchett comes here after a long service at Devine, during which time he built up his parish in a very substantial way.

If You Want More Business Ask for it--by Telephone

The best way to get business is to ask for it, and the more people you can reach the more business you can get.

During the winter months, when roads are bad and traveling is disagreeable, why not use the telephone to increase your sales?

Call your prospective customers and secure their orders by telephone.

You can reach more people quickly by telephone, than by any other means.

A TONIC
Tasteless chill Tonic restores vitality by purifying and regulating the blood. When you feel its stimulating, invigorating effect, see how color to the cheeks and how the appetite, you will then know its true tonic value.
Tasteless chill Tonic is simply Quinine suspended in syrup. So even children like it. The blood is purified and the iron in the Quinine destroys malarial germs and strengthens the system. Invigorates the system. 60c.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 12, 1924.

MRS. L. A. FRITZ.

Mrs. Rosa Mary Fritz, the wife of Louis A. Fritz, born in Victoria June 28, 1858, 65 years, 5 months and 27 days old, died at her home at 105 South Glass Street in this city Christmas Day, Tuesday, December 25, 1923, at 5:55 a. m. after a lingering illness. Mrs. Fritz had been in declining health for about a year and a half and while her death was not unexpected it came as a distinct shock to the community and has caused untold sorrow, for Victoria never has had a more useful or more universally beloved citizen.

Mrs. Fritz was the daughter of Stephen and Anna Kehl Sitterle, deceased, sturdy pioneer citizens, who came to Victoria from Blodelsheim, Alsace, France, and were promi-nently identified with the early history and development of the city. Mr. Sitterle's death occurring October 1, 1863, and that of his wife July 14, 1901.

For the last forty years no person has done more for the advancement of Victoria in every way than Mrs.
Fritz, who was a leader in all movements for the good of the town. She was president of the Catholic Cemetery Association at the time of her death and had held that office for nearly thirty years. She was also president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Victoria Fire Department, and had served in that capacity for the past five years. Then she was a member of the Victoria Civic Association and long active and prominent in the affairs of that organization, as well as being a member of the Catholic Benevolent Society, the Catholic Mothers' Club and the Altar Society of St. Mary's Catholic Church of which church she had always been a devout worshipper and an earnest worker.

Mrs. Fritz will ever be remembered and greatly missed for her broad charities which knew no race, creed or class and are strongly testified to by the multitude of people who have been the beneficiaries of her kind ministrations calling to pay their last sad respects, all grief-stricken and perplexed by her passing and on the altars of whose unnumbered hearts a tender love will always glow for her. Victoria has, in fact, never possessed a more generous and public-spirited citizen or one who more perfectly combined the elements of a noble character than this truly good woman, whose benevolence and general usefulness have assured an honored place for her in the memory of this community forever.

Mrs. Fritz was married in 1877 to Louis A. Fritz, who was also born in Victoria, the son of Louis Fritz, a native of Bratagne (Brittany), France, and Catherine Wantz Fritz, a native of Strassburg, Alsace, France, both deceased, who were among Victoria's earliest and best known citizens. Mr.
Fritz for years has been one of Victoria's most prominent business men, and, like Mrs. Fritz, a leader in all public activities, having served the city as mayor, chief of the Fire Department and in other important public capacities.

Of six children born to Mr. and Mrs. Fritz, three sons and three daughters, five survive, namely: E.
Jerome Fritz, Vincent S. Fritz, A. J.
Fritz, Mrs. Thos. H. Lee and Miss Bertha Fritz. The deceased daughter was Mrs. Louise Alnoch, the first wife of F. J. Alnoch, a widely known business man of Houston. Vincent S. Fritz is the present chief of the Victoria Fire Department and has been chief of the department for quite a number of years.

The funeral will be held from St.
Mary's Catholic Church with Solemn Requiem Mass tomorrow (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock, the cortege to leave the residence at 9:45 o'clock.
Rev. John Sheehan, rector of the church, assisted by Rev. P. B. Feeley, the assistant pastor, and Rev. L.
Etschenberg, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, will officiate. Interment will be made in the Catholic Cemetery. The following will serve as pall bearers:

Active—Dr. J. H. Tolson, Jas. F.
Welder, Thos. O'Connor, Eugene G.
Schier, T. R. Wood, V. E. Goldman, J. C. Levy and Chas. Hiller.

Honorary—Fred C. Holzheuser, Frank Alonzo, J. V. Vandenberg, Louis Sitterle, E. E. Pickering, R.
P. Field, J. H. Fleming, J. W. Meyer, Louis Halfin, Jake Apfel, P. A. Murray, L. W. O'Connor, F. N. Fossati, A. M. McFaddin, P. R. Austin, Frank Teague, Guy Mitchell, Louis Arnold, V. B. Proctor, L. N. Hofer, J. M.
Haller, A. Simon, Herman Fischer and Ike Cohen.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fire Department and also the firemen will attend the funeral in a body, two of the fire trucks draped in mourning to have places in the procession. The Knights of Columbus will also attend the obsequies in a body. The knights repaired to the residence last evening at 7 o'- clock and said the Rosary, showing the decedent this regard because of her faithfulness to her church and the fact that two of her sons are active members of the council.

The business houses will remain closed during the entire forenoon, this action having been authorized in a resolution adopted by the Retail Merchants' Association as a fitting tribute to the memory of a citizen whose life work was of so much benefit to Victoria.

MRS. ANTJE GERDES DEAD.

Mrs. Antje Gerdes, nee De Grodt, quietly passed away last Sunday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louis Haller, in San Antonio, at the age of 85 years and 26 days.
Mrs. Gerdes was a highly and universally loved and esteemed pioneer of the Quilhi community. For some fifty odd years she lived in this community and took a deep, active interest in the temporal and spiritual welfare of her family, friends and neighbors. She was a devout and devoted member of the Bethlehem Lutheran church and attended divine services at this church as long as it was possible for her to go to church. Her burial took place last Tuesday afternoon in the new cemetery at Quilhi.
An unusually large number of her former friends and neighbors turned out to pay their last tributes of love and respect to her memory. Rev.
Hasskari of the Quilhi Lutheran church officiated. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

Mrs. Gerdes was born on December 10th, 1838, in Ost Friesen, Germany, where she received her education and grew up to womanhood. As a young woman she entered into the marriage estate with Henry Gerdes, with whom she soon afterwards came to America and to whom she was for many years a faithful helpmeet. He preceded her in death in May 1917.
The issue of this union were six sons and four daughters, of whom the following survive their mother: Harm and Ben Gerdes of the Quilhi community, George Gerdes, Mrs. Louis Haller and Mrs. Charles Mierow of San Antonio, and Messrs. John and Henry Gerdes of Lowell, Arizona, as well as twenty-five grand and sixteen great grand-children. Mrs. Anna Frerichs of Hondo is a sister of Mrs. Ger-des. After the death of her husband, Mrs. Gerdes spent the greater part of her declining years with her son, Ben, of the Quilhi community.
The last few months she spent with her daughter, Mrs. Haller, at San Antonio, in the hope that a change would do her good; but it was decreed otherwise.

MIKE AND IKE.

QUIHI NOTES.

Next Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock divine service and the annual congregational meeting will be held in the New Fountain Lutheran church. As stated some time ago, divine services will be held regularly in this church every second Sunday in the month at 2:00 P. M., and every fourth Sunday at 10:00 A. M. All are cordially welcome at all services in this church.

The installation of the newly elected vestry of the Quihi Lutheran church last Sunday was a very solemn and interesting feature of the morning service. In spite of the cold weather the attendance was good.

If the necessary and desired hymn books can be secured in time, the English services, every second Sunday morning in the month, may possibly begin on February 10th.

"Strong and Well"

"I WISH you could know how much I am improved since taking the Cardui," writes Mrs. Nannie Brown, of Black Rock, Ark. "You wouldn't know me for the same weak invalid I was before I took it. At my... I had to keep off my feet or I would fall. I couldn't do my housework, and just got where I'd most as lief be dead as living. Some one told my husband of Cardui. He got it for me and I took three bottles before I stopped—then off and on for the last three years just as a tonic. I saw a decided improvement after my first bottle. I used the three, and was able to do my work with ease, and now I sew for my family and for others. I am feeling fine, and strong and well."

Take Cardui! It may be just the medicine you need.

The following gentlemen served as jurors: Wm. Sprott, Julius Ahr, Alfred Biry, Henry Frerichs, E. J. Oefinger, August D. Gerdes, E. W. Balzen, John G. Fessler, Walter Albrecht, W. O. Rothe, Henry Mangold. They were discharged for the term Tuesday afternoon.

HON. JOE BURKETT HERE.

Hon. Joe Burkett, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Texas, was here a short while Saturday afternoon but hastened on to Uvalde where he spoke at 7:30 in the evening. Mr. Burkett was scheduled to speak here at the courthouse at 3:00 o'clock but a broken automobile spring on the road between here and Bandera delayed him until after the appointed hour and he contented himself by meeting a few of our people personally while waiting for repairs to be made on his car.

Mr. Burkett is a vigorous young man and expects to make a very active campaign. He plans to be back here in March and speak at Hondo, Castroville and perhaps other points.

He has a clear cut, plainly stated platform that will appeal to many voters and it goes without saying that the other candidates are going to find him a factor to be reckoned with. So far he is the only candidate from the western section of our great state.

WANTED IN PITTSBURG.

James Carl, alias Alvino Tucci, is spending a few leisure days in the Medina county jail. Tucci seems to be a rather popular person, judging from the number of places where his presence is desired. He was arrested by the Medina county officers and was convicted in the county court this week on a charge of carrying a sling-shot, and retired to the county jail for thirty days to appease the outraged dignity of the State. Defendant is also charged with desertion from the U. S. Army. He is also wanted in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. In fact, they want him in that city so bad that the sheriff's department is in receipt of a wire to hold him until officers from Pittsburg can reach here. Just why he is wanted in that city is not known here. As it will cost Carl or Tucci $100 bucks to get out of jail it is more than probable he will greet his Pittsburg acquaintances in the Medina County jail as soon as they can reach here.

PHILATHEA CLASS.

The Philathea class met with Mrs. Harper Fly Tuesday afternoon. Miss Bertha Newton presided and the minutes were read and approved. A note of thanks for the Christmas cheer box of stockings sent to the orphanage by the class was also read. Miss Alice Newton directed the lesson of John 17 and 18 in an interesting manner.

A salad course with hot chocolate was enjoyed by the members as they grouped about the fireplace. The members present were Mesdames John Horger, J. H. Fly, Earl Boon, Theo. Barnes, F. S. Cockrell Fannie Fly, Roland Chancey, H. Conley and Misses Amanda Smith, Alice Newton and Bertha Newton. The class will meet with Mrs. J. A. Horger for the study of the remainder of John 18 and chapter 19.

FORTY-TWO CLUB.

The ladies "42" Club was delightfully entertained Thursday, January 10, by Mesdames Noonan, Muennink and Miller.

Several exciting games of "42" were played, after which a delicious lunch was served.

The tally cards and plate favors were in keeping with the New Year.

The members were pleased to welcome Mrs. Henry Merriman and Mrs. Roy Stone as new members and Mrs. Starnes of San Antonio as a guest.

Those present were Mesdames Reinhart, Rothe, Hutzler, Cockrell, Heath, Batot, Bradley, Starnes, Schuehle, Smith, Brucks, Schweers, Speece, Bless, Meyer, Stone, Merriman, Starnes and the hostesses.

Judge A. M. Lamm united Mr. Dominico Solis and Mrs. Maria de Jesus Ramirez in marriage down on the Fusselman farm Monday.

SOCIAL CLUB.

Mrs. W. O. Rothe entertained the members of the Social Club at her ranch home north of town Tuesday afternoon. The attractive interior of the house and the warmth of the reception rooms made an ideal setting for such hospitality and dispelled all thoughts of the gloomy weather. A color scheme of pink and green—the club colors—was carried out. Several games of "42" were enjoyed and at the conclusion of these a dainty bandeau was given to Mrs. Alice Reinhart for high tally, and a pencil to Miss Cora Finger for low. Delicious refreshments were served. The following members were present: Mesdames W. E. Albrecht, A. J. Finger, W. O. Rothe; Misses Cora Finger, Lucy Rothe, Dora Zinsmeyer and Josie Rothe. Mrs. Alice Reinhart was the only guest.

TO THOSE IN ARREARS.

Most of our subscribers renew their subscription, but there are some who settle up annually in the fall and occasionally some one over-looks this little matter and lets a year or two slip by unnoticed. This little reminder is to request all who can to remember the printer when making their fall settlements. Fair crops and good prices have made money fairly easy for most people. Pay these small amounts to the printer and make it "easier" for him.

We thank you—now!
